

Ants in My Pants

Bo Carter

[E]It makes no difference everywhere you go
I got [A]something want you to know
I got [E]ants in my [B7]pants baby for [E]you

Every time I come and feel your arm
It makes my feeling just get all wrong
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you

It is tomorrow it's certainly late
I want you baby give me a date
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you

You're a red hot mama meat shakes on the bones
Think about your lovin' baby when you're gone
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you

Solo

Every time meet you on the street
A funny feeling my head down to my feet
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you

Put your arms around me baby like you should
I'm tellin' you baby your lovin' is good
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you

I' m gonna hug you baby good and tight
Now love me baby like you done last night
Cause I got ants in my pants baby for you
